PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Church,

A few weeks before Christmas, one of my neighbors put up lights and garland on his house. It looked great. When I came back from a run one evening, I noticed that the wind had blown down the garland and a strand of his lights. I realized that although he put them on his house – he never once turned them on leading up to or after Christmas. It seemed like a waste of all that effort that went into his wife bravely going up on their roof. It seemed like a lot of lost potential. Everything was there for a light show that would have lit up the neighborhood and complemented the lights on the whole neighborhood, but instead – their potential went unrecognized.

I spent the first week of January this year in Arizona where I took a class on leading an evolving church in the 21st century. One of the most fascinating topics we covered had to deal with volunteer and leadership development. Our facilitator essentially said that a pastor can ask for people to participate in stuff every Sunday from the pulpit, and most of the time – because the ask is so general – nobody will respond. However, she said that if the pastor personally asks someone to do something, people have a much higher tendency to participate. A personal touch leads people to participate more than a general ask. This is not a novel idea. Jesus personally asked his followers to follow him and this is how disciples of Jesus are developed into empowered leaders.

Perhaps one of the only things that makes churches unique from other institutions is that we are meant to empower and develop disciples (leaders) for Jesus. Nobody else gets to do that in the sense that we do. A couple months ago I wrote about gifts and talents. This year I want you to think hard about ways that you might be willing to serve in our community. I would also ask that you be open to these experiences. I want to help you develop as a leader by giving you experiences (based on your gifts) to serve. This is the year I want to start personally asking you to do things.

I don't want you to be like my neighbor's Christmas lights and garland. I don't want you to just hang out and not shine. As your pastor, I want you to be like the lights that pierce in the darkness and bring illumination to our whole community. Be prepared. In the world of church, we all have a role to play. This is going to be a great year.

With gratitude,

Pastor Dan Stark

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

I heard something today that made me think quite a bit. It was a neat analogy. It compared things we have and things we value. Just as God gives us our sustenance (money) he gives us our lives (time). We are then given free will and choice over how we spend both.

When we say everything we have comes from God our materialistic minds turn that "everything" into possessions like money, houses, cars, jewelry, boats, etc.. Very rarely do we think of time as a valuable gift from God but isn't time one of the most precious gifts we receive from God? Everything else, except good health, (another God only gift), can be purchased with money. Think about it. The poorest person in India along with the richest person in America are both given 24 hours every day. The poor person has nothing with which to pay for that gift. The richest person cannot buy 1 more second of the day no matter how much money they possess. No earthquake, hurricane, wildfire, stock market crash, or divorce settlement ever shortened a day. They all have 24 hours.

So, the question now becomes do we hoard our gift from God or use it to further His kingdom? Do we watch TV instead of helping our neighbor? Do we spend time internet surfing instead of volunteering for an organization that helps people or animals? Do we even simply sleep a little longer on Sunday instead of attending worship? While all of us need "me" time our desire should be to use the gifts we have been given and spend time in prayer, helping our neighbors, and growing in our faith so we can be a blessing to ourselves and others. Do not procrastinate as that thief of time will surely haunt you later. God has freely given us this gift. Let us freely use it to Hi s glory.

2020 SISTERHOOD SATURDAY UPDATE

The Social Concerns committee hosted our 8th annual Sisterhood Saturday Fundraiser event on January 11th. This year we were fortunate to have entertainer and "Game show referee", Brian Wismer who led a very interactive fun show including games like, Family Feud, Simon Says, Trivial Pursuit, Heads or Tails and much more. He kept us laughing and thinking all morning!

We had 44 guests in attendance even with the questionable weather! Thru these guest's generous participation, we were able to raise $2,400.00 and collect a half of a cart full of groceries for the BVCC! We also need to mention the businesses & individuals who supported our fundraiser: The Green Bay Packers, The Milwaukee Admirals, The Princeton Club, The Olive Garden, Gold Rush Chicken, Kopps Custard, Grebe's Bakery, Riche's House of Cakes (6 desserts!), Haven Salon & Day Spa, Legacy Salon & Spa, Southshore Bowl, Custom Grown Greenhouse, Diva, The Healing Center, The Christ Church Endowment Fund, Julie Oren, Jill Unglaub, Danette Volz, Renolle Volz, Mike Mantie, Brian O'Brien, Don Antoniewicz, Dean Mowery, Chuck Terlinden and Mike Behling who without his support Debbie wouldn't be able lead this event.

It should also be noted that the delicious food served for lunch on the soup and salad bar were all donated and homemade by the social concerns committee members.

Sisterhood Saturday is not just an event, it is a calling and passion of the heart. The causes of abuse and homelessness are very important. If we can just help 1 person or introduce 1 new person to these causes it is all worth it! If you are in need or know someone else who is, there are Healing Center flyers in our information racks and around the building with information regarding childhood and/or adult sexual abuse.

We hope that we will see you again next year! With gratitude and appreciation! The Social Concerns Committee: Debbie Behling, Debbie Hansen, Mary Ann Mowery, Sara Rogers & Randene Wick

CHRIST CHURCH BOOK CLUB

Inviting all Christ Church members and friends to join us on April 26th after church in the fellowship hall for our next book club discussion. We will be reading "Running for my Life" by Lopez Lomong with Mark Tabb. This is the true story of a Sudanese child refugee who became an Olympic star. His life story is one of courage, hard work and having hope where there is hopelessness. Please join us for thought provoking discussion and fellowship. Books can be obtained through the library, ebay or Amazon. If you have any questions ask Carol Borchardt, Carol Dohoney, Debbie Hansen or Mary Ann Mowery. Happy reading!

MUSIC NOTES

Did you know that the Prelude music that is played prior to the service is not only a signal that the service will begin soon but can also serve as a time to quiet and center ourselves to prepare for worship?

As the Sanctuary doors close at this time please be mindful to keep your voices soft while socializing to allow everyone to enjoy the peaceful time while the Prelude music is being played.

The Psalmist writes in Psalm 46, "Be still and know that I am God."
