PASTOR'S LETTER

DEAR CHURCH,

A couple days ago I was doing some spring-cleaning in my office and I came across an old "Frequently Called Numbers" list from one of my predecessors. It was surprising because I couldn't help but notice how different the congregation is today. This led me to consult our church directory.

When I looked at the directory a lot of thoughts came to my mind: "Wow! I haven't seen this person forever!" "This person passed away." "This person moved." "This person doesn't attend here anymore." There were even some pages of the directory that I could simply cross out. It made me a little sad, because I think that our church could be dying. As Christians we know, though, that death is not the end of our story.

With April we don't just see the season premiere of the finale of Game of Thrones, but we also cross the finish line of Lent. The empty tomb of Easter Sunday reminds us that death is the beginning of our story, and it does not get to have the last word. The Christ Church that existed 20, 30, 40, or 50+ years ago is dying. However, because we are a resurrection people, our story does not end with death. Death is unpleasant. Jesus knew this. That is why he grieved for his dead friend Lazarus despite being able to resurrect him. I believe our church – the church of all those crossed out names, numbers, and faces in the directories – is in the process of being resurrected. It may be sad to say goodbye to our life before, but it will ultimately lead to new life.

I mentioned in my last article that our Church Council is going to be exploring our mission statement. Part of this statement that our spiritual forebearers put together is a charge for each of us to accept diversity, to share the good news, and to serve beyond ourselves. Over the last 3.5 years of my tenure I have had countless people reach out to me time and time again about whether Christ Church would be an accepting community for them and their LGBTQ loved ones. These persons have asked me whether Christ Church is the welcoming church that our mission statement says we are. I have not always been able to answer these Christians with an affirmative.

I believe our resurrection story was written in the words of our mission statement long ago. Part of this story has to deal with human sexuality, gender identity, and hospitality for all God's people. If you aren't yet aware, there are gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender Christians who attend Christ Church already.

They are involved in the ministries of our church. They give and support our ministries. They enjoy our coffee and donuts on Sunday mornings. In the UCC we believe in the “priesthood of all believers.” That means that each of us bear gifts from God no matter who we are. These LGBTQ Christians are part of that priesthood too.

Yes, our church is dying but it is in the process of being resurrected. Part of our resurrected church means that we can and will live more fully into our mission statement of accepting diversity, being a nurturing community, and sharing the gospel with everyone.

Part of our church’s dying and resurrection process is going to be exploring our identity, because I cannot tell you how many evangelistic and opportunities for growth we have missed out on with LGBTQ persons because they have thought we were not welcoming.

I know that you are a people of extravagant welcome. I know that we can live into our mission statement more fully. I know that embracing the walk of Christ will not fundamentally change our identity. However, I do believe that the church resurrected will be different than the church of old. Be advised that your Church Council is going to be approached by me to initiate a conversation about this birthing process. Be advised that I will be looking for persons who take issues of human sexuality seriously and passionately. Be advised that whatever side you come down to you will be heard, loved, and listened to by me.

Part of this journey to becoming a resurrected church will involve conversations with you and hearing stories from our friends and families. I am hopeful you will be open to the Spirit and respectful of the persons of faith that choose to bear their souls and be vulnerable with you as we begin a journey of discernment together. My prayer for you this Easter for all of us and for our church is that we can die and be resurrected – so we can recognize our potential as a resurrection people.

Thanks be to God,

Pastor

PRESIDENT’S LETTER

I believe we are given lessons plainly displayed in everyday things we do or see but like with any blessing we have to have receptive hearts and discerning minds to see and understand the lessons being shown to us.

My example? Dexter. Dexter is our Wisconsin Humane Society American Fox Hound who is as gentle and loving as any creature that ever lived. He loves to be with people, play, and would not harm anyone. He let’s me sleep and will not get out of his bed until I get up. No kidding. He is a very good dog except.... for one tiny little thing. When he gets off his leash he’s gone as fast as he can run. No amount of coaxing, commanding, or food will bring him home. Not even the Humane Society training class the Joe & Barb Heino family gave us or Jim Wick’s suggestions to me have worked. It is only after he’s completely tired out, hungry, and totally spent will he return home. Sometimes he’s very dirty and scratched, he’s always hungry, and he’ll sleep for 12 hours after returning from one of his “vacations”.

He loves to play ball but we have to do it on a leash. He loves to play tag but we have to do it on a leash. Sometimes he just picks up his favorite toy and just wants to run to get his energy out but, you guessed it, he has to do it all on the confines of his leash.

I want so badly to give him his heart’s desire and take him to an open area and just let him run and have the fun he wants. But I can’t, he won’t come when he’s called. I want the best for him and I know all the fun we could have if he would just come when he was called so I could keep him out of danger.

I know that if he could, he would gladly give up those very few sprints for freedom for a lifetime of no leash walks, no leash playing ball, and no leash running as hard as he wants around the yard chasing all the rabbits. But he can't make that decision. God gave me the ability to make a decision like that but Dexter doesn't have the same ability.

So, here I am. The only difference between Dexter and I is I know there is a better way. Whether I choose that way is totally up to me. I have my "sprints for freedom" when I do things that benefit only me at the time, or cause me no embarrassment at the time, or save me money at the time, or make me popular at the time. I do these things instead of reading, studying, remembering, and thinking through what the Bible teaches me. Jesus proclaims a life of never ending bliss (Dexter's no leash dream) if only we use the ability we have all been blessed with and make a decision to see past our fleeting "sprints for freedom" and trade those few sprints for the endless blessings that are promised to us from our Creator who knows better because, after all, He created everything, including all of us.

May we all use our priceless gifts of reasoning and intelligence to our own, and our Creator's, advantage by trusting in His instructions to us on how to obtain the heaven we all want but can't fully absorb in our limited thinking.

Dean Kothrade
Council President

CHRIST CHURCH NEW COUNCIL MEMBERS

We are very pleased to have had 2 people join the council. They are Kim O'Brien and Jennifer Perdue. The church council is grateful to have such energetic and talented people partner with the rest of us in guiding our church. We are still looking for 1 more council position to be filled. Please talk to anyone on the council including Kim and Jennifer. This is an opportunity to use the talents and gifts you were given to shape and guide our church and its ministry outreach.

Background

Sacrament by definition is a sacred ordinance of the Church instituted by Jesus Christ in which by visible signs and means he imparts and preserves the new life.

How many sacraments has Christ instituted? There are two sacraments; Holy Baptism and the Lord's Supper. (Within the denomination of the United Church of Christ we celebrate these two sacraments, while in other faith groups like the Roman Catholic Church there are additional sacraments.)

During each baptism our congregation promises, with the help of God, to provide a nurturing community of faith. These learning centers are one way we can live out that pledge.

SHARING IN OUR SPONSORSHIP OF DAWA CHOEDON

Please remember that the Christ Church Council has voted to sponsor a child through "Global Ministries" (Relief organization of UCC & Christian Church-Disciples of Christ). Yes, we are all very excited about our sponsored child, Dawa Choedon.

Dawa is 12 years old and lives in Lhaze Zong in Tibet. Both her father and mother are farmers. She has 2 sisters. Since Dawa's parents are poor they have sent all 3 siblings to the Upper Tibetan Children's Village (TCV) for an education.

The cost of sponsoring Dawa is $45/month, or $11.25/week. We hope to be able to sponsor her for a year with proceeds from our donut hour offering. We are encouraged to write to Dawa so she will know who is sponsoring her and that she may be able to write back to her "family" in the United States. The address to write to her is:

Dawa Choedon
Tenzin Zeden, Children's Secretary
Tibetan Children's Village
Dharamsala Cantt 176216
Distt. Kangra H.P. India

This is a special mission that was initiated to bring special meaning to our social gathering on Sunday mornings. Please give as you are moved to support this mission effort. This particular children's mission was chosen because it is connected with the United Church of Christ. If our Donut Hour ministry is successful perhaps we can support another child/organization next year through our funds. If you have any thoughts regarding this mission step taken through the donut hour please voice them to any member of the church council or to Dean Kothrade.

May we all share our God given blessings with Dawa.
